PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello fellow turners!

Let me introduce myself. I am Ric Moffatt, the guy that makes the pop-corn. I am also the new president of the NCW club. Yes, I answered the call for someone to step up to the plate. Tim has done a great job for the past two years, especially considering he has a family and a more than full time job. We have seen the club grow and new members learn to enjoy the art of turning.

I have talked with Tim and shared some ideas to compound on what we are already doing. He and others have given valuable insight as to what I and the board will face in the next two years. Not a problem! We are a club and will share ideas, tips and tricks and promote turning to each other and the community.

Ken Hunt is coming on board as the Secretary. He is the coffee guy. Why do I mention our two jobs? At the Christmas Party it was made clear we need name tags, so we can learn each other. Point taken guy with the white mustache! We should be able to have fun, learn and share. This is a personal goal Ken and I have. We need to strengthen some of our weak points and learn new skills while doing so.

We will be asking information from each of you. We need to know you and your skills, what you want from the club and what talents you can give back to the club.

No one is exempt, and everyone can learn. Let's have fun expanding our skills.

Ric Moffatt

Our own Michael McNeilly will be demonstrating finial turning as well as other items of his choosing. Several people from the Christmas party wanted the finial training so be sure and attend the January meeting to learn from, in my opinion, one of the best I’ve met for finial work.
